

GAGAKU

there's a cat
 waiting to be fed
 he's chased the birds
 away I fed him once already and now he's here again

he's a beauty
 three colors
 a lucky cat
 a striped brown and white tail one of my cunts called him a money cat
 and now he waits for his meal
 I better feed him
 I can use
 the company

the faustian man is supposed to have the best chance here on earth

the others get ground under fast

I've let my beard grow
to approach the
faustian man

as the hair on my face grows I notice more the fine breasts of women

this does not explain
fags with facial hair

I try to picture demons with hair on faces but it does not work

their faces are blurred almost vacuous
I see their black or royal blue unshining robes quite clearly but they lack clear flesh

they move
or their robes move
